1. Preliminary amendments were filed on 05/15/2006 and 12/01/2006. Claims 1-8 have been amended. Claims 1-8 have been examined.

2. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

Drawings

3. Figures 4-7 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

4. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

On page 5, it contains an embedded hyperlink and/or other form of browser-executable code. Applicant is required to delete the embedded hyperlink and/or other form of browser-executable code. See MPEP § 608.01.

On page 23, it contains the reference "scramble SEED value 20". Examiner believes this refers to line 205 from Fig. 1-2 and therefore should recite "scramble SEED value 205".

Appropriate correction is required.

5. Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213, (Comm'r Pat. 1935).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1-8 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

For independent claims 1, 3 and 4, the prior art of record fails to teach, alone or in combination, the following claim limitations in conjunction with the rest of the claim limitations.

an operation section which adds the ID information from the ID storing section and the sector number information from the sector counter section...

a selector which selects a scramble seed value which is outputted from the scramble seed table conversion section when the data under being transferred is a top of a sector and selects the scramble seed value which is outputted from the scramble filter section otherwise, to output the selected result to the scramble filter.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Katayama et al. (U.S. Patent Application Publication 2002/0037080) teaches using an ID from frame as a seed to generate a random sequence (note paragraph [0003]).

Perlman (U.S. Patent Application Publication 2002/0114360) teaches using the decryption key associated with the frame that is jumped to (note paragraphs [0059]-[0061]).

Unger (U.S. Patent Application Publication 2004/0062398) teaches having the required decryption keys ready on time to decrypt the content just prior to a jump (note paragraphs [0006] and [0034]).

Mori et al. (U.S. Patent Application Publication 2004/0103360) teaches every ECC block is composed of a predetermined number of sectors. Every sector currently processed by the demodulation circuit considerably precedes a sector requested by the MPEG decoder. Accordingly, it is possible to suitably set a descramble initial value for a first ECC block after the start of the playback of the recording medium or after every track jump during the playback of the recording medium (note paragraphs [0298] and [0304]).
